2024 Vice Versa Steltzner OV

Steltzner Vineyard

Cabernet Sauvignon - Stags Leap District

Tasting Notes

The nose is intensely perfumed, unfolding with violets, cassis, black cherry, and a delicate touch of candied orange peel. The palate is both generous and exquisitely refined, revealing a seamless, creamy texture layered with ripe dark fruits, crushed graphite, and a striking mineral tension. Silken, mouthwatering tannins glide effortlessly across the palate, bringing both precision and grace. The finish is extraordinarily long, vibrant, and saline, leaving a lasting impression of purity, freshness, and the unmistakable signature of this remarkable vineyard.

Label Art

Pioneer Dick Steltzner was ahead of his time, planting this vineyard in 1964, back when most people believed it was too cold there to grow Cabernet. For the label and to represent the vineyard's history, California artist Matthew Harrison sketched an image of a soldier at the foot of an old fortress.
